

Strathcona Accessibility and Inclusion Advisory Committee wants Tahsis residents to share their experiences or feedback about accessibility

The Village of Tahsis, in partnership with the Strathcona Regional District, is a member of the Strathcona Accessibility and Inclusion Advisory Committee. The Committee was created to assist the partnering local governments and other organizations to implement the requirements of the Accessible British Columbia Act.

Find more about the Committee at srd.ca/accessibility.

The Accessibility and Inclusion Advisory Committee is seeking feedback from the public through a feedback form. Please take a minute to fill in the form with your views about accessibility.
